OUT EAST.

Mines About Pine Grove and Salt River—Gold by the Pound—An Auriferous Bonanza—Native Copper and Native Bluestone.

[Virginia Enterprise.]

Ex Constable A. J. Smith of this city has just returned from a trip of some weeks' duration to Grant Mountain, Salt River, Pine Grove and other camps lying to the northwest of Aurora. He is well pleased with the region of country visited. His business in the camps named was to look after mining locations that he had been holding therein for several years, and upon which it was necessary to do a certain amount of work.

SALT RIVER

is no river at all, nor is there in the place so called a running stream. After the defeat of McClellan for the Presidency, in 1864, some miners who went there to prospect were said to have gone to Salt River, and the place has ever since retained the name. The camp is about a mile from the East Walker river, and six miles east of Pine Grove.

At Salt River Mr. Smith has a mine called the Boomerang, which shows very rich ore at the surface. The lead proper is about four feet in width, though it is about thirty feet between the walls, the material outside of the vein being a species of vein matter. A prospect hole twenty feet in depth has been sunk on this ledge. The ore shows well in free gold and argentiferous galena that appears to be very rich, though as yet no assay of it has been made. The ore looks very much like some of the rich ores brought from Mexico. Judging from the space between the walls, it is safe to say that the vein will be found to widen in sinking upon it.

AT GRANT MOUNTAIN

Hank Blanchard, Dick Wheeler and others have a mine, the ore of which yields by mill process $80 per ton in gold and silver. They have six men at work, and are confident that they will soon develop a very valuable mine.

IN PINE GROVE,
However, is the richest mine in all that part of the country. It is the old Wheeler mine, which is being worked by parties who have a lease of it. The mine is proving to be immensely rich. Last Monday the men who are working it sent to Carson 106 pounds of gold bullion, worth $19 per ounce. The ore is a close-grained iron sulphuret, in which are distributed spangles of free gold. The ore very closely resembles that of the Enterprise mine, Meadow Lake. It is taken out at the depth of 400 feet, and they have in sight as much as can be extracted in a year.

In milling the ore they use only a battery and copper plates, therefore saying nothing but the free gold. They must be running away some very rich tailings. The ore also looks as if it might contain a considerable per cent. of silver.

Adjoining this mine on the north, Mr. Smith owns a claim called the Sunset. Where the rich ore is being taken out in the Wheeler mine is but about 30 feet from the south line of the Sunset. Both mines are on the same vein, and there is little doubt that the auriferous bonanza runs into the latter.

On the Sunset free gold is found in the croppings, and at the depth of twelve feet specimens of white quartz are taken out that are full of gold of a bright and beautiful color. The ledge is twelve feet in width and is well defined. It might be prospected very easily by running a short drift from the Wheeler mine, passing their portion of the bonanza.

RENO EVENING GAZETTE.

RENO, WASHOE COUNTY, NEVADA

MONDAY.....JANUARY 7, 1878.

The Eureka Sentinel publishes the following dispatch received as dated:

VIRGINIA CITY, Jan. 4, 1878.
To Geo. W. Cassidy—Eureka: No Governor or Lieutenant-Governor in the State. Taxes too high. Convene the Legislature and reduce them.

WESTERFIELD,
SCHULTZ, STONE.

Let's see—Westerfield, Schultz, and Stone—have heard the names before, but thought they were instrumental last year in proving that taxes never could be reduced, unless the Compromise passed. Looks very much like they were afraid that they wouldn't get an extra session worth having, unless the Governor was out of the State, now don't it. But Cassidy scoffs at the idea, says he fought, bled and died for the people last year, and has been abused and is mad, and don't feel well and at any rate won't call an extra session. Nobody will blame Cassidy, we believe, for the reason that he has no right to call anything, and it is a responsibility which, had he the right, he would no doubt hesitate to undertake.

The Carson Tribune wants very much to see the counties of Mono and Alpine, in California, annexed to Nevada. The Tribune says of those who oppose the movement:

Again, they refer to Nevada's billion tax, as if they were not well aware that next Winter the repeal of the billion tax law will be the first business of the Legislature. Legislators will be selected in some counties for that purpose alone, and the law will assuredly become a dead letter.

It is to be hoped that the Tribune is well advised upon the subject, since it speaks so loudly. We opine that there is just a shade of doubt in regard to the action predicted, although there is no doubt that such an attempt will be made. The Tribune makes its announcements early this year.

Somebody has recollect that the passage of Scripture touched by the lips of President Hayes when he took the official oath, and noted on the spot by Chief Justice Waite, ran as follows: "They have compassed me about; yea, they have compassed me about, but in the name of the Lord will I destroy them."—Exchange.

It becomes us now to remember that if Tilden had kissed the book he would have osculated the place where it says, "Jesus wept."

The Eureka Republican has just opened its third volume, and is well satisfied with the looks of it. The Republican has always been a welcome exchange, and with H. B. Loomis, the industrious, at the helm, is no doubt the most ably conducted paper in eastern Nevada.

The Tribune says that Hobart's card bidding for the Governorship did not strike the Comstockers very favorably. We are reliably informed that they are not in favor of an extra session or Hobart for Governor.

Governor Bradley is once more in Carson and the executive chair is again warm. We are of the opinion that he will find a substitute for the extra session spoken of.

Stock Raising.

Eureka Republican: To-day, owing to the increased demand for Nevada meats, it may almost be said that a new industry is springing up in our midst. It certainly has, during the last year, taken a new and exceedingly favorable turn and the enterprise is now entering upon a new course of prosperity. * * * * Men are bidding for Nevada meats in San Francisco and Chicago, and the shipments to the latter place have been rapidly increasing of late. A like competition is likely to grow up in the East. Then the meat shipping establishment at Reno will run Summer and Winter, and the sections round about and tributary thereto cannot long meet the demand, without a great increase of attention on the part of growers in the vicinity, and a liberal importation from surrounding sections. But the most encouraging feature at present manifested is that portions of the State remote from railroad communications have been visited by San Francisco cattle men and markets there opened. The whole situation may, therefore, be summed up by saying that there will, hereafter, be an increased demand and at better prices.

The President on the Political Situation.

NEW YORK, January 5.—A Herald Washington special says: The President has recently spoken with considerable freedom to several old personal friends on the political future and present situation. He is reported to have said that so far he had met with no surprise; that what has happened was foreseen by him before he left Columbia; that he has seen no reason to change in the least the course which he laid out for himself before he came to Washington, and that the results of the Southern policy have been such as he expected. He is not surprised that the part of the Republican party opposed that policy, nor at the vigor of this opposition, and as he foresaw and expected this he is not disappointed that greater political results have not been reached in the Southern States as the fruit of that policy. It was inevitable that an attempt to arouse and create a solid North against the policy of reconciliation should maintain so far as possible a solid South. If the Republican leaders had at once heartily accepted the Southern policy, he is reported to say, the solid South would have crumbled to pieces before this, but he did not expect that, and he is satisfied with the beneficial results so far obtained.

CONVENIENT DIRECTIONS.—An express agent in the Columbus Enquirer: "Don't put preserves in same box with a silk dress—it spoils the preserves and silk won't wash. If you must send eggs—boil 'em—they stand the jar better. Don't mark a box for Mrs. —, care of her husband, unless so ordered. And don't mark a box for the husband 'care of' the wife—it is sure to cause trouble. Men have ordered silk dresses for—their sisters—or their mother-in-laws—and careless marking has caused the goods to go astray! If marked 'care of' anybody, it will be delivered to them only—be particular to put 'junior' or 'senior,' if same name. Last year a gentleman ordered a coop of turkeys sent him. He was going to give one to his father. His father got the box and sent the son one. The old gentleman imagines to this day they were all for him. Many a man has telegraphed 'goods sent this day,' and forgot all about it until next day. This causes the disappointed to express their feelings. If you send a bandbox by express—box it up! A bandbox is more difficult to manage than an anchor."

State News.

A prominent engineer is building the South Comstock. "He is long" on the epistolary market.

Peter Peterson froze to death at Silver Mountain, Alpine county, Jan. 2d.

The hydrants freeze in Virginia. Steamboat Springs is the finest resort in the State.

Alta and Justice are connected on the 1150 level.

Piper's Opera House is nearly finished.

Flowery District is looking up. Beef is in demand at advanced rates.

The Carson Appeal item which bucked and gagged several Chinamen turns out to be a gorgeous phantasm.

The Gold Hill News wants John P. Jones for next Senator.

The Gold Hill News wants an extra session of the Legislature.

Eureka has burglars.

FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS.—John Q. Moore and wife, of Carson, have commenced suit against the Central Pacific Railroad for damages sustained by Mrs. Moore while approaching the steamer Amador, at Antioch, California. Damages, $50,000. The case will come before the United States District Court in San Francisco. C. S. Varian and D. McCure are counsel for plaintiff.

The daily Independent, a new paper published at Salt Lake City, was found among our exchanges this morning. It is neatly gotten up sheet, and is edited with ability.

A daughter of Major General Richard Butler, one of Washington's most trusted commanders in the Revolutionary war, is living at Uniontown, Fayette county, Pennsylvania. She is 95 years old, and until recently enjoyed good health. She indulges in the "weed" and to this we'd lay the cause of her ailng.

Senator Ben Hill is going to address the Tennessee newspaper men next June. He says: "I really desire to address a press association, because there is no power in this country capable of doing so much good, and really doing so much evil, as the press of the present day."

A nurse of Mrs. Farrell's in Oakland last Friday, administered poison to Mrs. F.'s three children thinking the medicine was a purgative of rhubarb and magnesia. One child died from the poison, and the others narrowly escaped.

Mighels of the Appeal in his terse prospectus for 1880, says he will help Grant in '80. If Coupling hears that, he will surely stop his subscription.

J. G. Bennett will start a branch Herald in London.

New York Alderman asks the release of Tweed.

Chicago will have a mining stock board.

ENGLAND'S POSITION ON THE WAR.

LONDON JAN. 5.—The News this morning says all thoughts of peace have disappeared, and a disruption of the Cabinet is imminent. From the tone of this article, and other facts and rumors, it is evident that the crisis in the English situation has arrived. There is reason to believe that the late sessions of the Cabinet have resulted in an irreconcilable division, from which the gravest consequences may be apprehended. One conclusion believed to have been reached is, that a peremptory demand will at once be made upon Russia for a precise definition of her intentions, and in case of her refusal, war will be declared forthwith. There is no reason to think that Russia will return a favorable answer to the demand for the terms of peace, and then enforced mediation will follow, and this means armed intentions and war. There is no doubt that Beaconsfield is backed by the Queen and a majority of his determination to force Russia to stop where she is, or precipitate an armed collision. The next two or three days are liable to be the most exciting known here since the declaration of war. Disraeli has forced England to a point where war seems almost unavoidable.

CONVENIENT DIRECTIONS.—An express agent in the Columbus Enquirer: "Don't put preserves in same box with a silk dress—it spoils the preserves and silk won't wash. If you must send eggs—boil 'em—they stand the jar better. Don't mark a box for Mrs. —, care of her husband, unless so ordered. And don't mark a box for the husband 'care of' the wife—it is sure to cause trouble. Men have ordered silk dresses for—their sisters—or their mother-in-laws—and careless marking has caused the goods to go astray! If marked 'care of' anybody, it will be delivered to them only—be particular to put 'junior' or 'senior,' if same name. Last year a gentleman ordered a coop of turkeys sent him. He was going to give one to his father. His father got the box and sent the son one. The old gentleman imagines to this day they were all for him. Many a man has telegraphed 'goods sent this day,' and forgot all about it until next day. This causes the disappointed to express their feelings. If you send a bandbox by express—box it up! A bandbox is more difficult to manage than an anchor."

Hayes will veto the Bland bill.

The case of the State vs. M. Lippman was called for trial. A jury was empannelled and the case is now on trial. The case is brought by the prosecution charging Lippman with forging a bill of sale for certain assay tools, stove, etc., in all amounting to $150—the property of Mr. L. J. Carlson. Robt. Lindsay and Wm. Cain appear for the State, R. M. Clarke and C. S. Varian for the defendant.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS.—We dropped for a moment into the public schools this morning, their opening day, and found those who are soon to fill our places seemingly resolved on study, but, perhaps occasionally thinking on the condition of the ice above the dam, and wondering if the boy who just went out would be so horrid as to steal their skates. In Mr. Ring's department are 49 scholars; Mr. Cantrell, "the new teacher," claims 44; Miss Emery has enrolled 46; Miss Frankie Gibbs has in charge 54, and Miss McNeely authoritatively nods at 60 little hopefuls in the primary department. All was life. Lessons were being assigned, seats selected and overflowing vacation-accumulated mischief had occasionally to be checked. The new term begins with favorable indications.

And yet the war among the druggist's rages. The sick breath a sigh of relief, and the searcher for the otter of roses can now besmirch himself with this costly perfume of the Orient. Osburn & Shoemaker step to the front and elsewhere make an announcement at once satisfactory and complete. It will bear reading. If it were not for the doctor's bill we would get sick ourselves. A dread thought steals over us. What does this reduction in physic mean? Ointment and balm of gilead, toothpicks and big sponges at starvation rates. What is the country coming to, and how hath Walker's vinegar bitters fallen. Echo answers, where is the City Drug Store in this fight.

Yankee Dodge, ever up with the times, has a word of interest to our citizens and the residents of this county. Glance at the pleasant news found among our local ads.

The town is quite lively to-day.

R. M. Clarke of Carson is in attendance at Court.

NEW MUSICIAN.—Mr. Jacobson, a musician favorably known to many of our citizens, and well-known in Virginia City as a fine musical performer and instructor in dancing, has settled in our town, where he proposes to follow his profession. Next Friday evening he will give a soiree at the Opera House. After the dance he will organize a class for the purpose of instructing those who desire to learn how to dance. In a few days Mr. J. will make an announcement himself. For the present he will promptly attend to any orders left at E. Meyer's cigar store, or Brookins & Co.'s variety store.

BOARD OF TRADE.—It is proposed to call a meeting of the Board of Trade for Wednesday evening next. The object in view is to forward to our Senator an expression of the common western desire for an early passage of the Silver Bill. This single expression would amount to very little, but it is believed that numberless other towns and cities would join, thus affording Senator Jones the benefits of voluntary public expression upon the subject of silver. We think the lyceum might do as well.

ANNUAL MEETING.—The Stockholders in the Nevada State Agricultural Mining and Mechanical Society, will see in another column a notice of their annual meeting. This society is one of Washoe County's choicest possessions, and it is to be hoped that our people will all take an active interest in the approaching meeting. The election of officers is a very important measure, and we should canvass the subject and act intelligently thereon.

A parish meeting of all the ladies and gentlemen of the Episcopal Church, is called for Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The object of the meeting is to take some measure for raising money to pay off the remaining debt upon the church, which is now not quite one hundred dollars, and also to complete the building. All interested in the matter are urged to be present.

Hoole & Co., purchasing drugs and medicines at first hands, are enabled to sell drugs and standard patent medicines at lower rates than ever, and commence the new year with unparalleled reductions, offering patent medicines heretofore sold for one dollar, at 75 cents; Murray & Lanman's Florida Water at 50 cents; Colgate & Co.'s Toilet Soaps, 50 cents per box, and other goods at equally low prices. We have a carefully prepared grade of the College of Pharmacy, London, of a large and practical experience, having resided ten years in Virginia City. Prescriptions sold at lower prices than ever offered in Reno.

S. F. HOOLE & CO.

REMOVAL.—Yankee Dodge has removed to the store formerly occupied by Misses Brown & Harvey, where he will be pleased to see his friends and patrons. He will keep constantly on hand a general assortment of Yankee notions and fancy goods, and those articles that are not to be found in Reno. We will have an auction sale every Saturday evening. Be sure and give us a call before purchasing elsewhere. Don't forget the place, opposite the Reno Opera House, Virginia street.

Yankee Dodge, ever up with the times, has a word of interest to our citizens and the residents of this county. Glance at the pleasant news found among our local ads.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

Board met to-day in the Clerk's office. One member, Mr. Hymer, was absent. After the usual preliminary business was attended to, the bids for the county printing were opened and passed upon. The Board gave the contract to the Gazette for the present year of 1878, for the sum of $417.50. A number of bills were taken up and acted on, but to-morrow we will publish the entire list.

HOME AGAIN.

James W. Hendricks District Attorney elect of Lassen Co., returned yesterday morning from a visit of two months to his friends and relatives in California. He took stage this morning for Susanville where he will, in March, inaugurate a legal war against John Doe, Richard Doe and the rest of the "Never Sweats." Good luck, Hendricks.

DEFECTIVE STOVEPIPES.—A citizen calls our attention, by letter, to the number of defective stovepipes to be seen on West street near the Church. A defective stovepipe is the root of all evil and it is hardly necessary to advise our citizens to repair immediately.

ORE PRO NOBIS.—The Carson Tribune speaks favorably of work done on the Ayres Hopkins mine near Carson, and says that several tons of ore will soon be shipped to Reno for reduction. There is no doubt that the ores of the Comstock ought to be reduced by the running water in the Truckee.

JUST RECEIVED FROM THE EAST.—C. J. Brookins & Co., Virginia street, have just received from the East a most extensive and varied assortment of goods for the Holidays, to which they invite the attention of the public. Owing to the circumscribed limits of their establishment on Virginia street, they have been compelled to erect a large and commodious storehouse for the accommodation of their immense stock, which consists in part of the following articles: Dolls, the largest assortment in the country, and including the celebrated French patent, and embracing the smallest as well as the largest sizes; toys of every description, albums, vases, mugs, china cups and saucers, all the new games, children's tea sets, boys' tool chests, bird

Shakspear's Seven Ages Improved.

Here comes the Oil City Derrick with the following improvement (!) on Shakspear's Seven Ages: "All the world's a stage and all the men and women merely players, some of them most confoundly bad players, too; they have their exits and their entrances, but a larger proportion of them would rather have whisky as a steady thing. And one man in his time plays many parts—right field, center field, catcher, short-stop, etc. At first the infant mewling and pining in its nurse's arms and yelling fire; and then the schoolboy with his dinner bucket, and whining morning face, creeping like a snail unwillingly to school; with a sheep-skin under his jacket; and then the lover, sighing like a furnace, with a woful ballad, fearfully and wonderfully made to fit her mistress' eyebrow, and his coat-tail pockets big with confectionery; then a soldier, full of strange oaths and bugs, jealous in honor, sudden to quarrel, seeking the bubble reputation even at the cannon's mouth, at $13 a month and found; and then the alderman, with a bay window on his stomach, full of wise sawasse and things to eat, who charges $2 for marrying a man, and kisses the bride without leave or license. The sixth age slips into the lean and slumped pantaloons, with or without ruffles as the case may be. The last scene of all that ends this strange eventful history is second childishness and mere oblivion, sans teeth, sans eyes, sans taste, sans everything, except a wonderful faculty for lying about the hot summer and cold winters of his younger days."

LOVE STRONGER THAN CREEDS. An extraordinary religious and social event has just taken place in Chicago in connection with a marriage, showing that love is stronger than creeds. It seems that a young Jew and a young Catholic lady fell in love with each other. Their parents and churches opposed their union with extreme bitterness. But in spite of all, they went to Milwaukee some days ago and were duly married by a Protestant clergyman. Returning, the parents and friends of both parties studiously shunned them. Finally the bride determined to renounce the Catholic church and to adopt the religion of her Jewish husband. The event formally took place yesterday, when the couple were a second time married—this time by a Jewish rabbi—and the Catholic maiden is now a Jewish wife. It is the first instance of the kind that has ever come to our knowledge.—Chicago paper.

A "tramp" who has read the interviews of President Hayes with "Lo, the poor Indian," makes the following logical suggestions in the Troy Times: "I want the government to provide me with $40 and a trunk. It is true I am not a red savage, and have never scalped and slaughtered and mutilated unfortunate tourists and emigrants; but yet I have claims not dissimilar to those advanced by Spotted Tail and the other Indians at Washington. For instance, I loaf about a good deal, and drink whisky whenever I can get it, and let my wife do all the hard work. Besides I need some new clothes and want to 'dress like a white man.' Will you kindly inform me whether I shall have to go to Washington for the trunk and clothes, or whether the government will send them here to me?"

It is dangerous to look a gift horse in the mouth, if it be a loaded pistol. A French artist, M. Leyland, recently received from a relative a handsome revolver, and as he had no real use for it, kept it in his studio as a plaything. Three weeks ago he was painting in the presence of a model—a French woman of twenty-five—when, pausing from weariness, he picked up the revolver and leveled it at her. The girl shrank back in horror, and to reassure her, he pointed it at his own head to show that the chambers were empty. But the revolver was loaded, and when the trigger moved, the laughing Frenchman fell dead on the floor.
